CHARLOTTE, N. C.

Our Heaven opened up its gates
The Angels rushed right in.
With halos bright and starry eyes,
They found us all akin.

Together we made the days fly by,
And we really learned to live,
Finding true and meaning all the while
In what we ourselves could give.
Our teachers often spurred us on
Through laughter and through tears,
And now our "Jeb" we present
As remembrance of these precious years.

DEDICATION

TO MRS. HAZELWOOD and MISS FULCHER

As a teacher, they have our respect
As a friend, they have our love
And from them we have the imprint
Of their Character-Building.
They possess those qualities which we Admire—Intelligence, Christianity, Friendliness, Understanding and Humor.

CLASS HISTORY

We once again enter Stuart High,
And now that four years have glided by,
Our new dreams all untold,
Our history we'll unfold.

September brought us back with a whirl,
Still with our talking boys and girls,
Work hard, then play, as a class,
A "must" if we're to pass.

So, as our school days rolled by,
To June days we turned our eyes,
Vacation time has come they say,
And this makes us feel so gay.

Another September day was here,
As we rushed back with a rally cheer,
For Sophomores we soon became,
And this gave us a feeling of fame.

We worked, we talked, through this year,
With lots of fun, but also fear,
Knowing that exams were to take,
And we had better pass for our own sake.

Then once again came June,
And we were to be Juniors soon.
It brought us all many joys,
This made us happy girls and boys.

Another September rolled around,
Thirty one Juniors at Stuart were found,
In store there was much work to be done,
But also mixed with lots of fun.

It seems like the days were just too few,
For now the Junior and Senior Banquet came into view,
The Juniors invited the Seniors to dine,
And all agreed 'twas mighty fine.

"Starlight" was chosen as our theme,
With the stars and the sky we completed our dreams,
The girls were dressed formal for this occasion,
And the guests all clapped without persuasion.

Together we made the days to fly,
And it was time for us to say good-by,
For our junior year was o'er
And proudly we walked out the door.

Vacation time is finally o'er,
And we again enter Stuart Hi's door,
At last we have reached the senior class,
Working and playing and hoping to pass.

Fulton was our president so fine,
With J. R. J. next in line,
Ann West our minutes kept,
And as Treasurer, Jo needed no help.

Basketball time has come once more,
And here comes the crowd in the gym door,
This is our most enjoyed sport,
It thrills us to see them come down the court.

Fulton, James Robert and Betty Jean,
Are all stars on our team,
Nadean and Maxine were also on the beam,
For honorable mention in the paper were seen.

Valedictorian was Ann West,
She led the day with her address,
Salutatorian with honor great,
Betty Webb had won this fate.

Commencement day brought smiles and tears,
And memories for the coming years,
The caps and gowns of blue we wore,
On Stuart High we must close the door.

With our diploma in our hand,
Our ship set sail for another land,
Which soon will show in many ways,
Our grateful hearts for Stuart High days.

Our history we now bring to a close,
The years have been perfect everyone knows,
To Stuart days we say good-by,
With many a tear in many an eye.

CLASS PROPHECY

Greenville, S. C.
June 10, 1961

Dear Mrs. Hazelwood:

It seems like such a short time ago that we, the class of fifty-one, with tears still in our eyes from the commencement exercises and dread in our hearts were saying that last good-bye.

Our lives have changed so much since then and most of us have drifted miles from the old home town.

Last Tuesday, a week ago, I received a letter from a famous doctor's wife, the former Ann West, telling me of a class reunion to be held at her home in Charlottesville and urging me to come, as a greater per cent of our class was to be there.

Well, you know I couldn't resist the temptation—"Lulu" always was a forceful persuader and as you have probably read in "The Observer" she has convinced the Board of Trustees at the University of Virginia to install television sets so that the patients will enjoy their stay. So, I packed my bags and caught the next plane to Charlottesville.

Everyone was there and all talking so fast and furiously it sounded like a group of chickens. I managed to get fairly caught up on the gossip so, with no other explanation, I'll relate the same to you at this time.

One of the first items of interest is that Jimmy Floyd has established a body repair shop just behind James Robert Justice's Y. M. C. A. building in Lexington, Virginia.

Nadean Morse is confused because her five daughters turned out to be tennis champions instead of basketball stars. Well, that's life.

Annie Atkins, the famous Metropolitan Opera singer gave us a concert in French.

Annette Agee is patiently waiting for the war to be over. Wonder what will happen then.

Lorene Belton is styling hair for the movie stars in Hollywood, that is when she isn't home with Alvin.

Junior Vipperman who started studying agriculture at V. P. I. and liked military so well he joined the army, now holds the rank of major general.

Irene Blaylock, who became famous through her beautiful senior picture, is said to be the youngest and most beautiful grandmother since Marlene Dietrich.

The former Betsy Ross Clark is employed at Simmons Tobacco Farm and has achieved fame through her invention of the automatic tobacco wormer.

Patsy Owens is now operating a carnival in Greensboro, N. C. I understand she received her training while at Stuart High School.

Betty Mae Webb has just completed a book, titled How to Get Along With Men.

Una Adkins is now head of chain beauty shops in Chicago and Detroit. Her financial manager happens to be her husband.

Sadie Williams has worked her way up to forelady at DuPont.

Claudine Rogers, one of the married group, says she has finally given up her attempt to disapprove Lamareks theory of evolution. It seems her husband objected to the monkeys she kept in the kitchen for experimentation.

Edward Walker now owns a chain of "Lick or Lack" grocery stores. He got his experience at Mick or Mack.

Mary Ruth Hundley and Betty Jean Hazelwood are still together and have just gotten another promotion at DuPont.

Frances Dunkley, who is a typist in New York came to the reunion for a short while. She made a striking appearance in her stylish clothing.

Arlene Hughes, who is now Tommy's spouse, is busy reading their children stories about Mickey Mouse.

Onie Williams, a good teacher she would be, is now married and raising children three.

Airplane industry claims Sammy Foley. He has just made a spectacular flight from Earth to Mars.

Emma Jean Coleman has recently completed the decoration of Esther Williams' mansion in Beverly Hills.

Maxine Fain, the girl with those pretty blue eyes, is still the happy person she always was.

And listen: Harley Walker, who is coach at Minneapolis Lakers, says that Fulton Clark has taken up where George Mikan left off.

Louise Holt is the only well-known woman architect in America.

Mary Jo Murray has put Betty Hutton out of business with the act of singing songs and moving her eyes without changing her expression.

And me, I'm still happily working here at the Air Base.

When the end of the day came, we all realized that the reunion must soon come to an end. We had that wonderful feeling again—wishing we could have just a few hours longer. We had had a marvelous day and felt as if a large part of our success and happiness in our lives today was due to the excellent background gained at Stuart High School.

Now I must dash off—write real soon.

An old student,
JUANITA

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Seniors of 1951, having at last reached the final rank of our high school career, not wanting everybody to forget about us, have decided to leave various things to our teachers and friends; so, being in sound mind and body, we do bequeath the following to our faculty and under-classmen:

To Mr. Via, our Principal, we will our deepest appreciation and sincere thanks for the help he has given us during our junior and senior years.

To Mrs. Hazelwood we wish to leave our love and appreciation for the many things she has done for us.

To Mrs. Powell we leave the ability to handle all clubs and the Junior-Senior banquet as she has in the past.

To Mrs. Gertrude Hopkins we leave a requirement that every student must take geometry, so that she can have a larger class.

To Miss Fulcher we leave a third period class that doesn't have to be told the assignment but twice.

We know that Mr. Williams shall be pleased when we leave him some F. F. A. officers that excel in making speeches and reciting creeds.

To Mrs. Woody we leave another girls' basketball team coached by Mr. Woody.

Mr. Price will be happy to receive a basketball team that can beat Meadows of Dan and win the State Championship.

To Mrs. Moore we leave a quiet sixth period study hall.

To Mrs. Mildred Hopkins we leave a home room for her ninth grade, so that she won't have to stay in the auditorium another year.

To Mrs. Bivens we leave a Home Ec. cottage and a group of girls that can cook.

To Mr. Woody we leave a D. O. class that will work as hard in class as they do on the job.

We know that Mr. Paarfus will be glad to get rid of Frank Harris in chemistry, so we leave him Albert Einstein II instead.

To Miss Bateman we leave a bicycle on which to deliver the absentee lists.

To Foster we leave a soft easy chair with two additional helpers, so he can "boss" in comfort.

To Frank Harris (not that he needs it) we leave a $5.00 scholarship from the Harlem Globetrotters so they may teach Frank a few of their wild basketball shots.

Patsy Owens leaves her gift of speech to Peggy Lou Hopkins so she may entertain the other students and disrupt the class.

To Nellie Blair and Ernest Willard, Ann West and Harley Walker leave their back seat on the bus so they will enjoy the basketball trips.

To Donald Wood we leave a rule book and a referee so he won't have to both play and call the game.

Betty Jean Hazelwood leaves her ability to chew gum to Kitty Hazelwood and advises her not to sit in front of Mrs. Hazlewood.

To Helen Scott, James Robert Justice leaves his Chevrolet with the hope that she can have better luck holding it in the road.

Jimmy Floyd leaves to Brother Sammy his ability to serve as a punching bag in the back hall.

Harley Walker reluctantly leaves his romantic achievements to Aaron Wood, hoping that this will make him smile.

Nadean Morse leaves her ability to fall in love to Leonard Puckett and hopes that he will find someone that suits him as well as Everett does her.

To Billy Gunter, Patsy Owens leaves her slow southern drawl.

Mary Ruth Hundley leaves her height to Elinor Ray Owens so that she can reach the blackboard.

Sadie Williams leaves Lennis Martin her basketball suit and her place on the team.

Juanita Slate leaves Betty Mae Robertson her job and advises her to go to work regularly.

Irene Blaylock leaves her blond hair to Mary Vipperman, so that Mary can be different.

Edward Walker leaves Page Clark his job so he can eat, drink, and be merry while working in Mick or Mack.

To Margaret Morse, Claudine Rogers leaves a book, How to Date Every Night, and knows that Margaret will be as successful as she was.

Lorene Belton leaves her quiet manners to Joy Lou Simmons, sure that Joy Lou will get her usual "scream" out of it.

To Thomas Clifton, Junior Vipperman leaves his ability to argue and is sure that Thomas can use it.

Betsy Clark leaves Linward but surely hates to do it; so, take good care of him girls but save him for B.

Louise Holt gladly bequeaths to H. P. Howell her ability to keep silent in class. H. P., do you take the hint?

Frances Dunkley is saddened to part with her ability to laugh, but thinks that maybe Betty Whitten and Frances Haley may use it to "hook" a Meadows of Dan lad.

Annette Agee is overstocked with chewing gum, so she leaves Cousin Nancy a carload, provided she also accept the responsibility of keeping all others well-supplied.

We know of a set of 12th grade books that have been damaged none. Fulton Clark wants to ask Betty Sue to put a few marks of wear on them, next year.

Annie Atkins and Maxine Fain are tired of their front seats, so they will them to Janie Handy and Elda Lawson and request them to pay close attention to their teacher.

To Marion Wood, Sammy Foley gives a 50-cent lesson on how to throw rocks all year 'round.

Virleane Rogers will be happy to know that she is to be "Miss Stuart High" for 1952. Mary Jo Murray has declared her intentions to will that privilege thusly.

Betty Mae Webb, Arlene Hughes and Una Atkins leave Dovie Hughes, Betty Jean Williams and Annie Belle Hall their positions and feel sure that a salary raise will be in order.

Onie Williams and Emma Jean Coleman leave to Rachel Hundley their combined height, so that Rachel will be tall enough to guard that six-footer from Critz.

Looking around we see nothing else to leave, so we, too, leave hoping that you will enjoy these gifts and make the most of them.

WHAT WOULD HAPPEN IF

What would happen to the seniors if the manufacturers of chewing gum stopped?

What would happen if Arlene Hughes lost her Meadows of Dan sweater? Traitor?

What would happen if Betty Jean Hazelwood got enough sleep?

What would happen if Mary Ruth Hundley found a question in Science that the answer would be chemical?

What would happen if Edward Walker lost his job at Mick or Mack?

What would happen if Sadie Williams washed the dishes in Home Ec. Class?

What would happen if James Robert Justice would wake up one morning and find that his gift of "gab" was gone?

What would happen if Annie Adkins came to school on time?

What would happen if Onie Williams stopped dating Cecil?

What would happen if Juanita Slate stopped getting letters from a certain person in the Air Force?

What would happen if Ann West made below "A" on her report card?

What would happen if Harley Walker stayed in Study Hall for one whole period without being sent out of the room?

What would happen if Junior Vipperman's friend discovered there was life on the moon? Would he really blow his brains out with a wooden pistol?

What would happen to Betsy Ross Clark if Linward stopped coming to school?

What would happen to Mary Jo Murray, Maxine Fain, and Annette Agee if the Variety Show flopped?

What would happen if Nadean Morse couldn't come to ball games in a "cream colored" Ford with a Brunette?

What would happen if Patsy Owens should fall over a "Cliff"?

What would happen if Annette Agee lost her necklace (the one with the Air Force insignia)?

What would happen to Jimmy Floyd if all the Nurses at Stuart Hospital should go on a strike and Dr. Akers was not able to hire any more?

What would happen if the tenth grade couldn't stuff candy papers and apple cores in the desk in the Senior room?

What would happen if Sammy Foley couldn't keep open the school store?

What would happen if Una Adkins sat in the back seat on the bus?

What would happen if Emma Jean Coleman couldn't fix a little "extra" when cooking in Home Ec?

What would happen to Fulton Clark if Mary Jo Murray did not have a telephone?

What would happen if Maxine Fain had gotten her picture in "The Observer" for making Honorable Mention in basketball?

What would happen if Miss Fulcher couldn't chauffeur a big Buick around on Sunday afternoon?

What would happen to Frances Dunkley if she lost her boy friend?

What would happen if Irene Blaylock lost her friendly smile?

What would happen if Louise Holt couldn't work Geometry in Government?

What would happen if Betty Mae Webb's hair turned blonde?

What would happen if Mr. Price had a quiet Government Class?

What would happen if Mrs. Hazelwood found all the Seniors in their seats and ready for class when the second bell rang?

"Mr. Price:
 the Declaration of Independence signed?"
 "Marley: "At the bottom
 it says."

Junior: "Could you learn to care for a fellow like me?"
 Tootsie: "If he wasn't too much like you."

Arlene: "What makes you so uneasy? Is your conscience troubling
 you?"
 Patsy: "No, it's my winter underwear."

Boss(to Juanita, who is half an hour late): "You should have been in here at one o'clock."
 Juanita: "Why, what happened?"

Sadie: "I don't believe I deserve an absolute zero on this test, sir."
 Mr. Paarfus: "I don't either, but it's the lowest mark I'm allowed to give."

Una: "But you've known the man only two weeks. You're not thinking of marrying him?"
 Annie: "Well, it isn't as if he were a stranger. A girl I know was engaged to him for a long time."

NUTTY

Farmer(to Edward) "Where's that mule I told you to take out and have shot?"
 Edward: "Did you say 'shod'? I thought you said 'shot'. I've just been burying her."

Wife(angrily): "And I suppose you expect me to believe that you came straight
 for a little corn."
 Wife: "Yes--stopping frequently like the crow flies." Just Mr. Price: "Sure did. Just home from the office?"
 Mr. Price: "Yes--stopping frequently
 for a little corn."

Judge: "You stole eggs from my man's store. Have you any excuse?"
 Judge: "Yes, I took them
 by mistake."
 Judge: "How is that?"
 Judge: "I thought they were fresh."
 Judge: "Yes--stopping frequently
 for a little corn."

Irene: "That's a queer pair of stockings you have on,
 one--one red and the other green."
 Onie: "Yes, and I've another pair like it at home."

Frances: "Why don't you
 try and 'call your
 little progress."
 Frances: "Why don't you
 try and 'call your
 little progress."

Patton: "I haven't come to any ham in this sandwich yet."
 Patton: "Try another bite."
 Patton: "Nope, none yet."
 Patton: "dog-gone it! You must have gone right past it."

"Harry Ruffin: "It's too bad of you. You said you wouldn't tell me. Give it away. I told for another."

Mother: "Another bite like that and you will have to leave the table."
 Sammy: "Another bite like that and I'll be through."

LAUGH and the WORLD LAUGHS WITH YOU!

Fulton: "When I marry I shall lead a handsome girl and a wonderful cook to the altar."
 Mary Jo: "Heaven! That would be bigamy!"

Nadean: "You may not believe it, but I said 'No' to seven different men during the summer?"
 Annette: "Oh, I don't doubt it, What were they selling?"

Mrs. Hazelwood: "What are the middle ages?"
 Senior: "They used to be thirty-five to fifty: now they're fifty to seventy."

Shelburne: "Do you indulge greatly in terpsichorean art?"
 Maxine: "Oh, why bother about such things, let's dance!"

"FOUR DAYS OLD AND ALREADY SHE'S FLIRTING WITH SOMEONE TWICE HER AGE!"

"Do you have any for the plain civilian?"

JUNIOR YIPPEETMAN

"Will you sew another patch on these trousers while I look over the bills for the dresses you bought today, dear?"

Voice on phone: "Is Hugh there?"
 Louise (answering): "Hugh who?"
 Voice: "Yoo-hoo yourself!"

This collage of 25 black and white photographs captures a variety of school activities and student life. The images include:

- Sports: A basketball game in progress, a football player in a helmet, a soccer player with a ball, and a tennis player in action.
- Performances: A musical performance with a band and vocalists, a play scene with a sign that reads "Welcome to Paradise", and a dance performance.
- Social Events: A large group of students at a formal dinner or banquet, a group of students in formal wear, and a group of students in casual attire.
- Individual Portraits: Several individual portraits of students, including a girl in a dress, a boy in a suit, and a group of girls in formal wear.
- Other Activities: A student working on a project, a student in a lab coat, and a student in a uniform.

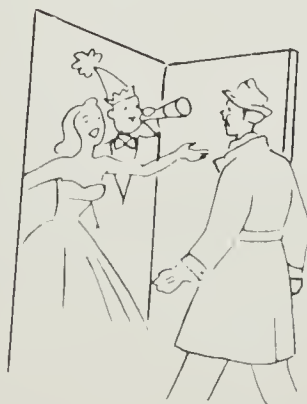

The photographs are arranged in a grid-like fashion, with some overlapping, creating a comprehensive visual record of the school year.
